BOB R. WINS MONTICELLO HOTEL HANDICAP OVER WET TRACK AT NORFOLK.

Feather Duster, in Greatly Improved Form, an Easy Winner-Talk of Extension of Jamestown Jockey Club's Meeting for One Week.

Sire. Star Shoot Cesarion . . Hastings

Norfolk, Va., November 18.—Secretary Gerhardy provided a splendid program for patrons of the Jamestown Jockey Club this afternoon. The Monticello Hotel Handicap, the feature race; brought out a high class field. It was a dash of one mile, carrying the value of $1.500, and was contested by eight horses, Bob R. and Ben Loyal being added mainly because of the sloppy condition of the track. It was a wise move on the part of trainer Mulholland in sending Bob R. to the post, as the result showed. The sloppy going Just suited Bob R. and he won with a good bit to spare by a couple of lengths. Bob R. was coupled with Sir John Johnson as the Beverwyck stable en'y. The latter was ridden by Goldstein and he made the early pace for his stable companion. Entering the homestretch, where McCahey brought Kormak up on the outside with, a bold challenge, and was on even terms with Sir John Johnson, Goldstein took the latter wide and carried Kormak out with him. This permitted Bob R. to slip through on the inside and save much ground and in the final sixteenth the latter got up to win going away. With a little better luck Kormak probably would have won. As it was, he was beaten a neck for second place. Plate Glass propped at the start, and quit when he reached the first turn.

The first and fifth races furnished stirring finishes with the winner first home by short heads. Mad River just lasted long enough in his race to withstand Jawbone's rush, while Joe Gaitens barely outstayed Chilton Queen in his race. The latter was supposed to be a "good thing" and was well backed by a coterie of shrewd operators.

The greatly improved Feather Duster, which ran Beaucoup to a head yesterday, came back this afternoon and galloped home with a long lead in the sixth race. Schuttinger, who is now doing all of William yiarities riding, had the mount. He also rode Bob R. to victory in the stake race.

The attendance, which has shown a steady increase during the past week, was again large, and it indeed must have been flattering to the management. T

MEXICAN COLT RUNS FAST MILE.

Tecoac Reduces Condesa Course Record to 1:411/5-November 20 to Be Gala Day.

Mexico City, Mex., November 11.—A good crowd at the Condesa track today witnessed the victory of two thoroughbreds from former Governor Gullermo de Landa y Escandon's stable, his chestnut horse Billy, brother to Force, winning easily from Marques de San Roman, which ran second in the Derby, and Madelon, an other contender in the same event. This was the fourth race of the day. In the sixth Governor Landa's good horse Tecoac easily defeated a speedy band and ran a mile in the track record time of 1:41½. Tecoac's performance was the more remarkable, as it was his first race of the season. Jockey George Mountain, who has been riding excellently here, guided both of these horses to victory.

Jockey George Mountain, who has been riding excellently here, guided both of these horses to victory.

Ida Barbadoes was an easy winner in the opening race, while J. C. Ferriss' Forecaster finished first in the second. Both of these horses were ridden by Jockey Dave Nicol. The third purse fell to Angelus, which had not been showing good form here, but was ensily best today, winning over Flying Feet, Kuropatkin and Freckle. W. G. Yanke's Incision took the fifth race by a scant head.

President Francisco Madero has accepted an invitation to attend the races on Monday, November 20, extended to the chief executive of the republic by the management of the Mexican Jockey Club. President Madero will be accompanied by his cabinet officers and the members of the diplomatic corps. The presence of these distinguished personages is sure to attract a great attendance, especially as the management of the association has decided to invite the poorer classes to attend, throwing open the field to them free of charge.

Francisco Bincon Gallardo, owner of the good filly Shooting Star, has decided to retire her to the stud. The selection of her mate will be made shortly. Shooting Star, has decided to retire her to the stud. The scleetion of her mate will be made shortly. Shooting Star is the winner of the recently run Mexican Derby, and is by Requital—Star Lily. This filly has started five times, with the remarkable record of four firsts and one second, and for this reason, in accordance with the custom of Mexican owners of thoroughbreds, she will be retired from the track in the hope of establishing a line of speedy Mexican-bred horses. Shooting Star, in the brief number of times she has faced the barrier, has won $12,500 for her owner.

Mexico City, Mex., November 12.—The largest crowd seen at Condesa since Derby Day gathered today to witness the running of the eighth card of the season. The betting ring was crowded with en-thusiasts between the races and the layers did a brisk business.

thusiasts between the races and the layers did a brisk business.

The fifth race was the chief feature of the day. The entries and the order of their finish were Harrigan, Oakland, Chapultepec, Round the World and the winner of the first Mexican Derby, Star Eyes. The horses were off to an almost perfect start, Oakland making the running from the rise of the barrier until well into the long stretch, which is easily three-eighths of a mile in length. A half furlong from the finish Harrigan, Oakland. Chapultepec and Round the World were practically neck and neck in a magnificent struggle, which brought the crowd to their feet, cheering, madly calling to their

TWENTY LEADING AMERICAN SIRES OF 1911

Star Shoot is well in advance of all competitors in the American winning stallion list of 1911 and quite certain to maintain his supremacy to the end of the year. Last year this good son of Isinglass stood fifth in the list to Kingston, Hastings, Cesarion and Sain and even at that was credited with more money won by his progenys than probably will accrue to their credit in this, his year of leadership. Star Shoot is still a young horse and, having many worthy representatives, may repeat his triumph in 1912. Cesarion is a good second in the list with a substantial margin over Hastings, the latter having a smaller advantage over Sain. The standing of the twenty leaders up to and including October 31 is as follows:

RENEW ENDURANCE STAKES

KENTUCKY STATE RACING COMMISSION TAKES ACTION TO THAT END.

Rule Is Proposed at Meeting of Commission Designed to Prevent Handbooking on Kentucky Tracks-Judge Price Overruled in Joe Deibold Decision.

Lexington, Ky., November 18.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission at a called meeting today, reversed the decision of Judges Charles F. Price and John B. Dillon in the case of the horse, Joe Delbold, authorized the renewal of the Kentucky Endurance Stakes at four miles for 1912 and framed a measure intended to break up handbooking on licensed vace tracks and the state. Vice Chairman Johnson N. Camden were present and Dainsen and Johnson N. Camden were present of George H. Whitney, finished second in the first race at Latonia November 9. Among others in that race was Bill Todd, running in the name of G. A. Thornton. L. V. Bellew put in a claim for Joe Delbold. Mr. Whitney refused to give him up on the ground that Mr. Bellew did not appear to have registered him to right to claim Joe Delbold. On affidavit. Judges Price and Dillon sustained the claiming of the horse. Mr. Whitney appealed the case and the ruling of the commission today reads:

"Rule 50 is mandatory, and failure of owner or owners to comply with said rule deprives the horse Bill Todd of any standing in the race. If the judge of the race had known the facts, he should not have let the horse start, the entry being null and void. Not knowing the facts and the heing known to the judges, they should have deprived him of the race. The horse Bill Todd not having any standing in the race, his owner or part owner can certainly not claim any privilege granted under rule 143. The race to the owner of Bill Todd stands as if said horse had never started. The ruling sustaining the claiming of L. V. Bellew of the horse Joe Delbold, owned by appellant, George H. Whitney, is therefore set aside and said chairs he will be shown to the claim any privilege granted under rule 143. The race to the owner of Bill Todd stands as if said horse had never started. The ruling sustaining the claiming of L. V. Bellew of the horse Joe Delbold, owned by appellant, George H. Whit

MARYLAND RACING SEASON ENDS.

Getaway Day at Marlboro Brings Two Winning Favorites-Plans for Columbia Meeting.

Washington, D. C., November 18.—This was getaway day at Marlboro and the largest crowd of the meeting turned out for the final day of racing in Maryland for this year. Seven races made up the program. The track was deep in mud. more rain having fallen last night. The public did not end the meeting in good style, as Tom Shaw and El Bart were the only successful favorites.

Schweitzer won two races with Lucille R. and Montagnic, while Fairbrother made the same record with Cashin and El Bart. Jockey Hopking who had been at Norfolk for several days, was at the track and rode in several races, but failed to win. N. K. Beal and J. G. Wagnon will ship their horses to Jamestown.

The following list of officials for the Columbia meeting have been sent to the Jockey Club for approval: P. A. Brady, presiding judge; E. C. Smithnesociate judge; Hart Dernham, secretary; James Milton, starier, and A. N. Elrod, manager.

The following bookmakers have applied for stands at Columbia: Joe Blume, J. W. Rice, S. A. Clopton, Smith & Perry, C. L. Jones, Frank Tyler, Tom Shaw C. Davids, Fred Cook, E. Collell, N. Shapiro, W. Armbruster, G. G. Voertman, J. Cahill and Charles Walter.

KEENE HORSES ABROAD TO BE SOLD.

James R. Keene's horses in England have been listed for sale at the Newmarket. December auctions conducted by Messrs. Tattersall, this move meaning his retirement from racing on account of poor health. As Runnymede, Cataract, Outram, Blarney Stone, Franconia and Similium have all won well in England, it is more than probable that he will realize quite a large sum in the aggregate for his small, but select band of Castleton-bred racers,

CAN BOTH TROT AND RUN FAST.

Of a peculiar line of breeding fostered by the French government a Paris letter to London Sportsman says: "The Trotting Society of Caen, whose charter gave the right to organize facing on the flat and over country for thorough and half-breds, and permitted not only the leasing of Vincennes, but also of the modern and handsome track at Saint Gloud, has inaugurated with great success the 'll-legitimate' sport for trotters bred in Normandy, Brittany, and other provinces where breeders have been complaining for some time past of the slender budget placed at their disposal.

"Remarkable progress has been made in the breeding of the half-bred. In appearance, judging from those seen at Vincennes, they are thorough-bred to all intents and purposes. M. Olty-Roederer, with Harmonie the Third, won easily, notwithstanding the opposition offered by Giroflee, who over-jumped herself at the finish and, getting rid of her jockey, allowed her opponent to pass the post almost unopposed. The winner showed good form on the trotting track. Seven went to the post, and save the incident above mentioned all went the course, clearing hurdles and other jumps in faultless style, and holding out great promise for the success of these hybrid gatherings, largely patronized by the general public. Advocates and casuists of the race-course will now be able to argue the question, as to whether these jumping and flat racing trotters will be permitted to race during the close season enacted by the Societe d'Encouragement and the Societe des Steeple-chases de France. The horses seen out at Vincennes showed they had been well schooled, and that good stendying weights would not stop them. We are perhaps getting one step nearer the "Petits Chevaux' of the seaside casinos, Some extensive purchases have been made of trotting sires destined for government by the official buyers. The conditions are that the horse presented shall show through his pedigree that he is as near being thoroughered as possible—good shoulders, plenty of bone, correct, well balan

LEXINGTON SALE AROUSES INTEREST. Will Be Most Important Thoroughbred Event of the Week in Kentucky-Blue Grass Gossip.

Lexington, Ky., November 18.—The interest of turfmen in this locality will center about the auction of thoroughbreds that is to be held here next Tuesday and Wedenesday. The sale is to be the first in Kentucky of the Powers-Hunter Company, which was created by W. L. Powers and Stewart Hunter upon the retirement of the Fasig-Tipton Company from the thoroughbred sales field last summer. The auction is to be held in the mammoth barn of the Harbison. Jewell & Patterson Company, adjoining the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association and known as Tattersalls, and George A. Bain is to be the auctioneer.

The catalogue embraces 193 head, of which eighty are mares that have been in the stud or are ready for retirement, eighty-three are yearlings, twenty-three are weanlings, six are stallions and one, Pink and Black, is a gelding just out of training. The stallions are Boanerges, from the Spendthrift Stud; Buck Massie, from the Pequest Stud; Cedarstrome, owned by E. L. Davis, of Midway; Filigrane, owned by F. W. Nelson, of Jersey City; Elkhorn, owned by E. L. Davis, of Midway; Filigrane, owned by Fred A. Forsythe, of Harrodsburg, and St. Simonian II., from the Hartland Stud.

There are fifty-five econsignors to the sale, but the largest single consignment is that of Messrs. Milton Young, Thomas Piatt and John D. Carr, It embraces fifty-five head—twenty-eight broodmares, twenty-five yearlings and two weanlings. The occasion for this big consignment is the second retirement of Colonel Young from the ranks of the breeders. After he dispersed his McGrathiana Stud in October 1908, Colonel Young gradually got back into the business through his inability to sit at a sales ring and see a thoroughbred knocked down to anyone else for less than what he thought it worth. In a little while he had accumulated the stallions Mexican and Leonidas and about sixty mares and as many youngsters and he found himself leasing the Gorlan farm on which to keep them. This place was not large enough to accommodate all of them an confined to an interest in some horses that W. L. Lewis is training.

Among the yearlings that are to be sold are a brother to the great gelding Roseben, a sister to Fireball and a half-brother to Bensonhurst, besides others that are close kin to good winners and it is to be expected that the average will be quite in keeping with that of the September auction of the Kentucky Sales Company, which was $250 per head for 282 head.

It will be a long time before to be expected that the average will be quite in keeping with that of the September auction of the Kentucky Sales Company, which was $250 per head for 282 head.

It will be a long time before horsemen hereabouts quit talking about the speed that was displayed by the yearling son of Disguise and Quadruplex (dam of Sterling Towers and Pettijohn) by Order, at the Kentucky Association course last Thursday morning. It is not remembered by any one in this vicinity that any other yearling ever trained here ran a quarter as fast as :22 and then pulled up three-eighths in :34!. There were a dozen or more thoroughly reliable men who witnessed the performance and they, all being expert horsemen, are unanimous in the opinion that, aside from his deetness of foot, this yearling is quite the best that has been saddled here in many years. He has stammla and quality in addition to his speed. A. W. McCracken, a Canadian gentleman who traveled from Brandon, Manitoba, to buy a yearling and selected this one as the superior of all that were shown him on a number of farms, is to be congratulated upon his excellent judgment. T. C. McDowell, who broke and worked this colt for Mr. McCracken, has some likely ones of his own breeding, but he says they are not to be compared with the son of Disguise. Mr. McDowell has put sside four that are to winter here and begin their racing careers on the Kentucky tracks next spring. They are the chestnut filly (half sister to The Manager) by Star Ruby—Mirth: the chestnut colt (half brother to Ilma) by Yankee—Monarda, and the bay colt (half brother to Whim) by Yankee—Monarda. Each of these have shown quarters in :232 or :233. The six yearlings that Mr. McDowell will take with him to Havana for winter racing are: Chestnut colt, by Star Ruby—Mirth: the chestnut colt, by Grando—Belle of Ashland (dam of Premier); brown filly (half-sister to Barnsdale) by The Scribe—Countess Irma; chestnut colt, by Rasturtium—Lucky Locket (dam of Star) Jasmine), and bay colt (brother to Highbrow) by Plagues and Clay, and Winner—B. f. by Maddison—Michapa (trained by A. Amor).

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. MACHINTLA set a fast pace for the first half, but was a very tired horse at the finish and just managed to last long enough to win. LA LUZ II. was badly outrun until the stretch was reached, where she came gamely and was closing up fast on the winner at the end. MADREPERLA showed a grand turn of speed, but failed to stay the route. EXTRA DRY showed early speed.

Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. HARRIGAN did not get to running freely until will down the stretch, but when called on responded gamely and in a fast finish got up in time to win drawing clear. OAKLAND showed brilliant speed and, setting a fast pace, outstayed CHAPULTEPEC at the finish. CHAPULTEPEC and ROUND THE WORLD had a hard struggle all through the stretch, CHAPULTEPEC staying best at the end. STAR EYES jumped up in the air as the barrier rose and never improved his position. ROUND THE WORLD showed great speed, but tired under her heavy impost.

MAD RIVER was off slowly, but steadily improved his position and went around the leaders with a rush while rounding the far turn, but tired in the last sixteenth of a game finish. JAWBONE came with a rush through the homestretch and would have won in another stride. DAINGERFIELD was always prominent, but kept swerving behind horses in the homestretch and ran disappointingly. BREAKER EOY tired after running prominently to the stretch. SUNLIKE set the pace for three-quarters and tired badly in the final drive.

Overweights—Mad River, 5 pounds.

AN INVALUABLE RACING PUBLICATION.

The American Racing Manual for 1911, now on sale, is a better book than any of its predecessors, having been enriched by the addition of various new features, while at the same time all the old features are retained. Its new features include a thorough presentation of the interesting and timely subject of pari-mutuel calculations with examples, a complete tabulation of the winning two-year-olds of 1910, arranged under their respective sires; and a list of the officials and locations of the various racing organizations of the United States, Canada and Mexico. This publication, which is annually in great demand among those interested in the turf, is an excellent and low-priced book of 442 pages, holding information obtainable in no other publication. It is simply a mine of records. Among the old features retained are: favorites and excitedly throwing hats in the air. As the horses approached the finish, it was in the midst of the most animated scene that has ever been witnessed on this course. A few strides from the wire, Harrigan, which had not succeeded in getting well into the running until well down the stretch, responded to the call of Hoffman, and with a great burst of speed flashed to the front, beating Oakland by a half length. Oakland was a scant head in advance of Chaputlepec, which outgamed W. G. Yanke's fast filly by a half length. Star Eyes, which had not previously faced the barrier this season, acted contrarily and was difficult to handle from the moment of leaving the paddock. He finished far bebind and was completely out of it from the start. The handicapping by Presiding Judge W. H. Shelley in this race was good, as was shown by the horses coming to the finish with but a length separating the four leaders.

The most valuable race decided was the fourth, the Grand Criterion Stakes, for two-year-old Mexican-foaled colts and fillies. Amor Brothers' Machintla, winner of the Criterion Stakes last Sunday, was again a victor, scoring by a length over La Luz, with Madreperla, a stable mate of the winner, third.

The Henderson & Hogan stable took two purses, the first and the third, with Henry Walbank and Tim Judge. J. C. Ferriss won the second and the closing races with Traymore and Galliota.

The saddle honors were taken by two jockeys today, J. Howard winning the stake race on Machintla and also being successful with Traymore and Galliota. R. Hoffman piloted Harrigan to victory in the handicap and also had winning mounts on Henry Walbank and Tim Judge.

Hal Stevens and W. J. Delaney arrived today and will remain to the end of the meeting, when they will proceed to Juarez for the winter racing season in that border city.

Starter Harry Morrissey's work here since the opening of the season has been good, but today he was particularly effective, sending all of his fields away from the barrier to perfect starts.

PLUNGES OF THE LATE JOHN W. GATES.

The late John W. Gates used to say that the race track furnished him with the relaxation he needed after business. Race track men are of the opinion that the horses owed him nothing when he died, as he was not only shrewd in his speculations, but lucky withal.

Mr. Gates was the last but one of the big plung-res when the consequent in members of the Lockey.

Mr. Gates was the last but one of the big plungers whom the conservative members of the Jockey Club would have been glad to see stay away from the tracks because of the wholesale manner in which they wagered. It is a matter of comment among racing men that like two other noted plungers he died within a year after racing had been suspended in the vicinity of New York.

Senator McCarren was the first to die of the plungers who made history when racing was at its zenith. Senator McCarren did not court publicity as did Davy Johnson, the second of the trio, nor were his methods as flamboyant as those of Gates. He bet quietly and nobody could tell after a race whether he had won or lost. He rarely smiled and his training is a politician made his face a mask which hid every emotion.

Davy Johnson was exactly the opposite. The which hid every emotion.

Davy Johnson was exactly the opposite. The world knew what he was doing always, and during the running of a race his fire of comment was incessant. He never bet as much money as McCarren or Gates, but it was only because he didn't have it, as he was wholly reckless and regarded money as much paper. Its purchasing power meant nothing to him and he was up and down all the time.

Mr. Gates was what was called an information player and he always had somebody upon whose judgment he could rely. He was a believer in his luck to a remarkable degree and followed it occasionally, but as in his other speculations those connected with the turf were intended to yield a profit. In the days when Enoch Wishard trained for John A. Drake, Mr. Gates would rely absolutely won the judgment of the clever horseman who was making for tWells and other members of the Drake stable perform wonders at times. On occasions he would permit himself to be touted by somebody with an alleged good thing, but as a rule it was Wishard, or later Durnell, who advised him in matters pertaining to the track.

English turfmen credit Gates and his partner Drake with one of the biggest coups ever pulled off toyed with the horses opposed to him and it was the worst day the English ring had seen in a long time when Royal Flush romped home an easy winner.

The English turf authorities looked askance. They could scarcely figure how a horse could show such an improvement in so short a time and when victories on the part of other horses in the stable followed there was more than a well defined rumot that the Americans would not be missed if they should determine to race no more in that country.
There was a story that the Jockey Club stewards sent an extremely courteous note to the owners of the stable when they were about to take the steamer for New York regretting their departure, but expressing the hope that if they returned they would not find it convenient to race any horses in England.
Mr. Gates's last spectacular play on an American race course was five years ago, when "Boots" Durnell was runnning a number of horses which rumor said had been paid for by Mr. Gates. Durnell was constantly in consultation with Mr. Gates whenever the latter was at the course, and that was almost daily during the racing season, a fast automobile bringing him to the track at a speed which kept the mounted police on the Ocean Parkway busy dodging his machine. The good things the combination pulled off that season were legion and the size of the wagers was such that the members of the Jockey (Club who were constant in their endeavors to minimize speculation chafed over their inability to keep the plunger within bounds. Matters were coming to a point when something drastic was looked for when Mr. Gates took a vacation abroad. When he returned Durnell was not training a stable of horses and there was an end to the most successful combination that had been seen on the American turf for many a day.

Mr. Gates during his whole career on the turf went on the theory that his money was his own and he could use it as he saw fit. If he wanted to bet $10,000 or $20,000 he bet it and won or lost, and the public invariably knew whether he
